

Ukraine

United Nations Security Council

Topic - The Situation In The Donbas Region And The Conflict In Eastern Ukraine

Ukraine has demonstrated a strong commitment into maintaining international peace and security by actively participating in multilateral organisations, taking part in peacekeeping operations, and promoting diplomatic solutions to regional conflicts. Addressing the Donbas region and eastern Ukraine conflict is crucial for regional stability, as it increases the rate of risks to peace and security. A resolution is essential to prevent further tension escalation.

It is essential to reaffirm Ukraine's sovereignty and territorial integrity in the Donbas region for supporting international law, respecting national borders, and ensuring Ukrainian people's rights and self-determination. It is imperative to declare ongoing hostilities between separatist groups as well as other parties as they jeopardize peace and stability.

It is fundamental to address the severe beneficial consequences of the Donbas conflict on civilians. To minimize the impact on populations at risk and put an end to the humanitarian crisis, this is crucial to provide security, and medical care, as well as encourage compassion. Recognizing the need for reducing suffering for humanity, Ukraine is devoted to offering humanitarian aid to individuals and families in the Donbas region who are in need. Regardless of their background, they actively assist those in need while maintaining their respect and well-being.

In order to de-escalate tensions, address problems, and find a lasting solution that respects international law, sovereignty, and territorial integrity, Ukraine actively participates in diplomatic negotiations to find a peaceful solution to the Donbas conflict. For an attempt to stop the flow of fighters and weapons into the Donbas region, international cooperation is essential. decreasing the conflict and limiting the number of foreign fighters can enhance regional security.

In conclusion, Ukraine actively participates in multilateral organizations, in peacekeeping missions, and diplomatic solutions, demonstrating its commitment to global peace and security. The stability of the region depends on finding a peaceful solution to the issues in the Donbas and eastern Ukraine.

Submitted by -

Name: Sandilya Challa

Country: Ukraine

Committee: United Nations Security Council

