Housekeeping and Food Services

Nandi Hospitality Services

Nandi Hospitality Services Private Limited has Three Pillars of Service

- Quality Cost
- Timely
- Delivery

It is with these tenets that we have created a healthy partnership with industries and corporate that demand world-class services at local costs. With a vision to differentiate and deliver, Nandi Hospitality, made a foray into this field in the turn of the millennium.

Our clientele includes the Who's Who of the manufacturing, IT and educational sectors based in South India.

Creating a network to support onsite kitchens and on-time delivery in remote locations, has strengthened the organisation's capabilities to set-up and scale up for every new project.

Ashwin Shetty

Managing director

A IT professional, Ashwin Shetty turned entrepreneur in 2004, with Information Technology Training Institutes.

His association with restaurant market kindled his interest in the food & Hospitality industry.

He began Hospitality Concepts, to cater to the meal requirements of the IT industry. The company was re-christened Nandi Hospitality Services Pvt. Ltd. in 2008, in order to focus and grow the corporate and industrial catering business.

Today, Ashwin helms Nandi Hospitality Services Pvt. Ltd. with the vision of establishing new frontiers in not just quality standards and service, but also in corporate functioning, standing apart in an industry cluttered with multinationals and fragmented local players. He conceptualised the business process and delivery models of NHSPL and is its prime driving force for becoming the most preferred facility management vendor for MNCs.

OUR USP

Two Decades of Diligent Service

Our experience in this industry has been built from that of a tiny operation, brick by brick, on learning big and small. This keeps us close to our customer always, in understanding the most basic of requirements.
